

Dr. Yatendra Dutt Amoli did his PhD Yoga in Kashmir Saivism- a rare cult of Tantra Philosophy.

During 15 years of Teaching and in his academic experiences he has written several research papers published in the Journals of international repute. His book on Kashmir Shaiva Philosophy published by the best oriental published- Chaukhamba in India.

He has written several major articles in Yoga Journal- China editions. His interview broadcasted by CGTN, CCTV and other national televisions in China. He has been appointed as an ICCR chair by MEA govt of India for the establishment of first India China Yoga College at YMU, Kunming in 2015.

He is now Associate Professor in Yoga at Dev Sanskriti University Haridwar and also involved in several translation and research works of cultural anthropology in China and India. He has good understanding of Sanskrit literature regarding the cultural investigation of Yoga and also working on some rare texts of Yoga. His talks on Hatha Yoga and other major systems of Yoga have been recorded by IIT (R).